

The Path

Written by Mat Ogden

Key: A | BPM: 107 and 106 | Time: 6/8

Intro

F#m E D F#m

Verse 1

F#m E D A/C#
I can't keep blaming demons for the suffering that I'm in
F#m E D F#m
Just because I cannot seem to bear the weight of my own sin
F#m E D A/C#
Holiness and beauty rest upon a bed of broken bones
F#m E D F#m
For the path of least resistance never led me to your throne

Chorus

D F#m
I don't believe your cross was meant for me to be a crutch
Bm F#m
You who paid it all in blood will not administer my drugs
D Bm F#m
Oh the path for me You paved, It is narrow, it is straight
E D F#m
If Your grace is like an ocean, May I walk atop its waves

Reintro

Verse 2

Would You burn away the dead wood, Let what's left of me be true
May whatever is left standing set me on the road to You
It's a prayer I might regret in times I'm wrestled to my knees
Lock the door to my humanity and swallow up the key

Chorus

D F#m
I don't believe your cross was meant for me to be a crutch
Bm Fdim F#m
You who paid it all in blood will not administer my drugs
D Bm F#m
Oh the path for me You paved, It is narrow, it is straight
E D F#m
If Your grace is like an ocean, May I walk atop its waves

F#m

You didn't die for us in love

E

For us to live half drunk and numb

D

Up to our necks in blood and lust

C#sus C#7

At least our God won't send a flood

F#m

Heard the call of Holy Ghost

Called it shame and made a toast
